

CLE Information: ABA Section of International Law 2017 Europe Forum
Barcelona, Spain – June 11-13, 2017

States typically decide whether a program qualifies for CLE credit in their jurisdiction 4-8 weeks after the program application is submitted. For many live events, credit approval is not received prior to the program.

The ABA directly applies for and ordinarily receives credit for live, in-person programs in AK, AL, AR, AZ, CA, CO, DE, GA, GU, HI, IA, IL, IN, KS, KY, LA, MN, MO, MT, NC, ND, NH, NM, NY, OH, OK, OR, PA, PR, SC, TN, TX, UT, VA, VI, VT, WA, WI, and WV.

The ABA will seek 9.0 hours of CLE credit including 1.5 hours of ethics credit for this program in 60-minute states, and 9.0 hours of CLE credit including 1.5 hours of ethics credit for this program for this program in 50-minute states. Credit hours are estimated and are subject to each state's approval and credit rounding rules. View accreditation information for your state. Special rules apply to lawyers from the following states:

Arizona: The State Bar of Arizona does not certify MCLE courses or providers. You must independently review Arizona MCLE regulations and make your own determination as to whether a program qualifies for credit towards your MCLE requirements.

Florida: You are eligible to receive credit for this program through Florida's reciprocity provision. ABA programs are approved in New York and many other states. To have credit for this program posted to your CLE total, email or fax the Uniform Certificate of Attendance and the program agenda to the Florida Bar. View contact information for the Florida Bar. There is no fee for you to use the reciprocity provision.

Idaho: You may self-submit this program for CLE approval by sending the Application for CLE credit to the Idaho State Bar with the required attachments. You can download a copy of the program brochure/agenda from an ABA program's website, or print a copy of the program web page if no separate brochure available for submission with your application. There is no fee for this submission.

Maine: You are eligible to receive credit for this program through Maine's reciprocity provision that allows credit hours for courses or activities approved by another MCLE state and certified by that state's CLE regulatory authority to be accepted for identical credit by the Maine Board of Overseers of the Bar upon the board's receipt of evidence of such certification as issued by that state, or the ABA Uniform Certificate of Attendance. ABA programs are approved in New York and many other states.

Nebraska: You may self-submit this program for CLE approval after attending the program by logging into your personal MCLE account with the Nebraska MCLE Commission. There is no fee for this submission and a response is generally received within 3-5 days.

New Hampshire: The New Hampshire MCLE Board does not certify MCLE courses or providers. You must self-determine whether a program is eligible for credit, and self-report your attendance online at www.nhbar.org/NHMCLE.

New Jersey: You are eligible for credit for this program under New Jersey reciprocity provision if another state grants credit for it. ABA programs are approved in New York and many other states.

New York: This transitional CLE program is approved for all New York-licensed attorneys in accordance with the requirements of the New York State CLE Board for 6.0 transitional MCLE credits including 1.0 hours of ethics credit. Both experienced and newly admitted attorneys may earn New York credit with this program.

Rhode Island: You may self-submit this program for CLE approval online under Course Accreditation \(Appendix D\), at the time of attendance reporting. There is no fee for self-submission.

Wyoming: You may self-submit this program for CLE approval within a reasonable time after attending the program by completing Application for CLE credit. This is the same form that is currently required for attendance reporting. There is no fee for self-submission.

A limited number of registration fee reductions are available for this program upon application. The fee-reductions will be determined on a one-time only, case-by-case, first-come first-serve basis. Requests must be received at least three weeks before the program start date. You will be notified prior to the program if your application is approved. A minimal fee may be charged on all approved applications to defray expenses. For programs with tuition costs of $500 or more, qualifying attorneys will receive at least a 50% reduction in the course fee(s) only. To apply, send a letter outlining the basis for your request of a fee reduction to intlawmeetings@americanbar.org.
