21. CLE INFORMATION

This conference is expected to qualify for 10.09 CLE credit hours including 1.0 ethics hour in 60 minute blocks and 10.00 credit hours (including 1.0 ethics hour) in 50 minute blocks.
According to the American Bar Association (ABA) Tort Trial & Insurance Practice Section (TIPS), there are three ways to register for their conferences:

1. Online: Visit www.americanbar.org/tips or complete the registration form included in this newsletter.
2. On-site: Registrants will be accepted on a space-available basis.
3. By mail or fax: Complete the registration form and submit it to the ABA.

The Conference is scheduled to be held on May 2–5, 2018, in Los Angeles, CA. The program, titled “Tort Trial & Insurance Practice Section,” is expected to qualify for 10.09 CLE credit hours.

The faculty includes renowned legal experts such as Edward A. Altman, Barry S. Ake, Jennifer Coates, Jennifer Carson, Mr. William D. Betts, Patterson & Mines, P.S., and others.

All members of the ABA are eligible to register for the conference. Non-members may also register for a fee. Registration deadline is March 13, 2018.

A scholarship is available for all Section activities, courtesy of the TIPS Scholarship Committee. Scholarships provide financial support to those who would otherwise be unable to participate. For programs with tuition cost over $1,000, additional scholarships are available.

In addition, there are special CLE programs and other career and practice-related opportunities available for members and non-members alike.
