This program will include practical information, tips, and discussions that will benefit the practitioners and professionals, regardless of their specific areas of practice. The topics will cover most, if not all, fidelity claims. The presentations will focus on a pragmatic discussion, and plan for implementation, of specific skills with an eye toward pressing legal issues, ethical issues, and handling strategies. The focus will be on a collaborative effort to enhance the skills and knowledge of attendees.

While many attendees cannot resist wearing suits to this conference, feel free to come dressed in the attire of your choice. A variety of social activities is planned, including a late night excursion, whether this will be your first program or your tenth. You will enjoy the evening of lively discussion and camaraderie. A central focus of the FSLC for each of this year's programs is to provide inclusive registration and programming that is open to all, with an emphasis on diversity and inclusion.

We are pleased once again to join the FSLC Fall Meeting with the Fidelity Law Symposium, offering a comprehensive program that covers a wide range of topics and provides practical and legal guidance to attendees. The program will include presentations by leading experts in the field, followed by interactive discussions and networking opportunities. Whether you are a seasoned attorney or new to the field, you will find valuable insights and resources that will help you succeed in your practice.
